

Job opening – Policy Adviser, Capital Markets – January 2019

Are you looking for an opportunity to grow your profile as a government affairs professional in the capital market industry in one of the global centres of public policy? This is your chance.

1. Main functions

- Coordinate the work of the EACH Policy Committee, working with its Chair and Vice-Chairs to prepare discussions and follow-up actions; Coordination of other Committees/Working Groups also possible.
- Analyse, monitor and react to EU/international legislative and non-legislative initiatives affecting the CCP industry;
- Attend relevant meetings, conferences and events and report back to Members;
- Efficiently deal with the requests of Members;
- Use social media to support the communication of EACH positions;
- The position is based in Brussels.

2. Profile

- Enthusiastic, proactive and analytical candidate eager to learn, make progress and use all her/his potential towards the vision of the association;
- Experienced in the European and/or global financial services government affairs sector, post-trading in particular (CCP-related experience is an asset);
- Great team spirit that allows her/him to work conformably in a small but dynamic team that makes a real difference;
- Strong organisational skills with excellent attention to detail that allow her/him to work independently;
- Excellent interpersonal skills that allows her/him to build a relevant network in the industry;
- Strong proven drafting and public speaking skills;
- Excellent command of Word and PowerPoint skills; Command of Excel and WordPress is an asset;
- Excellent command of written and spoken English; other EU languages are an asset;
- Two to Four years' experience in a similar position.
- University degree.

3. Offer

- Three months full-time contract to be converted into a permanent contract if the candidate is successful;
- Attractive compensation package including salary and meal vouchers. Pension scheme and medical insurance to follow with permanent contract;
- Possibility to be part and shape the future of a key financial services industry;
- Small but dynamic team where individuals have a high potential to develop themselves;

4. Contact

Please send a CV and cover letter explaining why you are interested in this job to info@eachccp.eu. Submissions are welcome until Friday 1st February 2019. Only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

5. About EACH

The European Association of CCP Clearing Houses (EACH) represents the interests of Central Counterparties Clearing Houses (CCPs) in Europe since 1992. EACH currently has 19 members from 15 different European countries and is registered in the European Union Transparency Register with number 36897011311-96.

CCPs are financial market infrastructures that reduce and manage the risk in financial markets transactions. CCPs cover potential forward-looking risks through robust risk management tools. CCPs have been recognised by global regulators as institutions that successfully contributed to reducing the impact of the recent financial crisis.

For more information visit www.eachccp.eu